

Above left: A ti'at, or Tongva plank canoe, being carried to the water in Long Beach. Photo by Frank Magallanes and Althea Edwards. Above right: Leland Kinter (left) and Phoebe Bender at the Tewe Kewe Cultural Center on the Yocha Dehe Wintun reservation. Photo by Jeff Corwin. Below: David Paul Dominguez (right) and Mati Waiya share songs and dance in front of an ap. Photo by Luhui Isha.

An inside view of the California Indian world

Spring 2010 issue

Published by Heyday, News from Native California is a unique quarterly magazine devoted to the Indian people of California. Written and produced by California Indians and those close to the community, News provides an intimate portrait of traditional and contemporary tribal culture.

New California Media First Place Award Winner, Arts and Culture

PRAISE: “[A] full-fledged magazine focusing on the arts, education, the law, culture, language, [and] botany...,[News] probably has the widest literacy range of any periodical in the Western Hemisphere.”—Los Angeles Times

“The first and only journal for California Indian peoples, a network where we can talk with one another about our individual and common political concerns, News from Native California has been and continues to be our intertribal hotline.”—Greg Sarris, Tribal Chair, Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria

NEWS FROM NATIVE CALIFORNIA

HOW TO ORDER

Single copies are $5.95 each. Subscriptions are $22.50 per year for four issues (foreign subscription rates are $42.50 per year). Gift subscriptions are also available. Full sets of back issues are available. Prices for individual back issues vary, so please inquire.

To subscribe, or for retail distribution, please call (510) 549-3564, ext.316, email ncc@heydaybooks.com, or visit <http://www.newsfromnativecalifornia.com>.

Please note that orders for News from Native California are processed separately from orders for Heyday and cannot be combined.

STAFF: Malcolm Margolin, Publisher; Margaret Dubin, Managing Editor; Lillian Fleer, Editorial Assistant; Rebecca LeGates, Graphic Designer; Kim Hogeland, Proofreader

Table of Contents

FEATURES

- 4 Wishtoyo Brings Life to Ancient Chumash Village Site
Article by Margaret Dubin, Photos by Frank Magallanes and Althea Edwards
- 6 “Pass me that squirrel, toss me my iPod”: Language Learning at the Yocha Dehe Wintun Nation Margaret Dubin
- 11 Native Language Teachers Win Right to Credential Martha J. Macri
- 12 Idyllwild Summer Arts: Cahuilla Survival Technology
Article by Christie Time Firtha, Photos by John Pinson
- 16 California Native Plants Class Going into Its Thirteenth Year
Article and photos by Rose Ramirez
- 18 Census Critical for American Indians Joely Proudfit
- 19 Too Mush Fun: A Tasty Approach to Kumiai Uses of Native Plants
Article and photos by Michael Wilken
- 21 American Indian Health Clinics Facing Funding Crisis John Andrews
- 24 Blue Jay Girl Sylvia Ross
- 26 Blue Jay Girl: A Book Is Born Sylvia Ross

- 34 Historic Firehouse Museum Gets a Burst of Native Energy Shelly Covert
- 39 California Indian License Plate Initiative Joseph Arthur
- 41 Jacque Nunez Named Educator of the Year Kim Hogeland
- 42 Tongva Ti'at Hits Long Beach Waters
Article and photos by Frank Magallanes and Althea Edwards
- 43 Sculptor Doug Hyde Shares Work with Yocha Dehe Students
Article and photo by Sarah Martinez

IN (ALMOST) EVERY ISSUE

- 28 Become a Friend of News from Native California
- 29 Heyday News and Updates
- 31 Calendar of Events
- 36 Big Times/Little Times:
Fritz Scholder Inducted into the California Hall of Fame Kim Hogeland